

People with fixed incomes do not need charities calling them, nor banks selling their credit cards or loans. My calls have been coming in between 4 & 6 o'clock. And even at 9 p.m. in the evening. Some people do retire early and should not be disturbed. Also, the 9 p.m. calls are alarming, thinking some family member needs help.